COMMENTARY

The Board of Directors of I&M Holdings Ltd is pleased to announce the Group's audited full year results for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Financial Highlights

Banking Sector Performance

Slowdown of credit growth rates across the region:

- In Kenya, our host and home country, according to the Central Bank of Kenya, the local Banking Sector continued to suffer from adverse weather conditions, a prolonged electioneering period as well as subdued credit growth to the private sector arising from underscoring the effects of interest rate capping.
- The Tanzanian banking sector exhibited significance resilience despite the economic and regulatory turbulence witnessed during the year.
- As earlier reported by the National Bank of Rwanda, the Rwandan economic growth slowed to 3.4%, on average, in 2016/2017 compared to 8.6% recorded in 2015/2016 following the negative impact of the prolonged dry season and the completion of some big infrastructure projects.
- Mauritius remained the island of calm in a turbulent environment, ranking #1 in Sub-Saharan Africa, on the World Bank's Doing Business Report.
- · Across our operating markets, the credit growth parameters remained subdued due to a number of economic factors.

Financial Overview

- In our 44 years of existence, our performance has, as and when always closely mirrored that of the Kenyan economy; when the country suffers, we suffer; and as it prospers we prosper. As a responsible banking sector player and conscious of the prevailing challenges, we had established a fully-fledged unit to help our customers navigate through the hard times by providing a much needed shoulder to lean on. This has worked well and we expect better results from the workout initiatives that are on-going.
- At an operating income level, we have managed to maintain performance at the same level as the prior year. In addition, we have set aside KShs. 4.1 billion from our profit by way of provisions to deal with certain sectors in our book that have demonstrated signs of stress in late 2017.
- We believe the spirit of the IFRS 9 standard, coming on the back of adverse impact of the interest capping has come at an appropriate time that dove-tails with our heightened desire to ensure utmost prudence and appropriate pricing of risk.
- As part of its revised Strategy, I&M Group also revamped and refined its Group Operating Model in 2017 aimed at exploiting synergies from unlocking additional revenues and cost savings through greater integration, improved coordination and control, enhancing risk management across the group, driving talent mobility and sharing of best practises. This is steadily being ingrained though the senior leadership and the various group functionaries.
- The growth in the non-funded income stream due to unique value propositions to our customers underpins the efficacy of the iMara strategy as we already see early successes
- In 2017, the Group embarked on an ambitious project to upgrade its core banking system to Finacle version 10 across all the banking entities in Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, and Mauritius. This is expected to be completed in 2018 and will vastly enhance user experience as customers continue to interact with our various products and services.
- It is heartening to note the erstwhile Giro Commercial Bank Limited was successfully integrated within I&M Bank. This was not an easy task by any standard and the Board congratulates the Bank's leadership in steering this process with minimal disruptions and loss of business.

Looking Ahead

- The Group has gained significant traction from the clinical rollout of our new corporate strategy. Going forward, the prospects are bright as we continue to deliver to market a wider portfolio of solutions.
- In particular, we expect more than double digit growth against our non-funded income stream due to strategic customer value propositions. We shall also maintain a strong focus on regional top-line growth, focusing on strong values and key strengths of innovative service and strong customer relationships. Through these pillars, I&M Holdings aspires to be the banking powerhouse in East Africa for middle to large and premium clients through provision of innovative and market driven banking solutions for its target segments.

We are on your side!
